2011 Regranting Application

Deadline August 5, 2011

Goal of Regranting

The goal of the San Benito County Arts Council's Regranting Program is to develop and promote cultural and artistic growth in San Benito County. For our 2011 Regranting Program, mini-grants up to $500 will be available to arts organizations and individual artists in San Benito County.

Project Guidelines

- a) Proposed projects must be relevant to and for the benefit of San Benito County residents.
- b) Projects must encourage artistic and/or cultural expression, interaction and awareness in the visual, literary, performing (i.e. music, dance) and/or traditional arts.
- c) Projects must demonstrate quality, originality and creativity through artistic production.

Grant Application Guidelines

Applicants will be required to submit the following:

- ✓ Grant application cover sheet
- ✓ One-page narrative describing the proposed project
- ✓ Budget that shows 1) overall cost of the project 2) how SBC Arts Council funds will be used and 3) source and amount of any matching funds or "in-kind" donations
- ✓ One paragraph description of organization's mission, history & goals (For arts organizations only)
- ✓ Resumé (For individual artists only)

Applications must be postmarked by August 5, 2011. Please include the original Regranting Application and 3 copies of the application and attachments collated into sets (electronic copies will not be accepted).

Use the application cover sheet as the first page. Please mail applications to:

San Benito County Arts Council
PO Box 692
Hollister, CA 95024

Criteria

- a) Does the project provide access to high quality artistic experiences for San Benito County residents?
- b) Does the project demonstrate initiative, innovation, creativity and potential for excellence?
- c) Is the project well-planned, structured and organized to ensure success?
- d) Does the project have a realistic budget, including the use of other resources?
