

San Benito County Arts Council
PO Box 692, Hollister, CA 95024
(831) 636-2787/
www.sanbenitoarts.org

We're Hiring, Arts in Education Positions Now Open

Interested applicants should apply ASAP. Applications will stay open until positions are filled.

We're looking for practicing artists to join our dynamic Arts in Education team!

The San Benito County Arts Council, a nonprofit arts organization based in Hollister, California has immediate openings for part-time Teaching Artist positions, reporting directly to the Director of Arts Education. Ideal candidates will be highly-organized, collaborative, energetic and reliable, as well as possess excellent communication, computer and arts-based skills.

We are hiring for temporary summer positions with an opportunity for permanent employment for the 2021-2022 school year. Applicants should apply with the intent that they can commit to all hours during the 6-week summer session.

NOTE: The job description that follows is not intended to be all-inclusive. Employee may perform other related duties as negotiated to meet the ongoing needs of the organization.

General Job Function: Direct Artistic Instruction to Students K-8

- Follow and implement arts-based lesson plans in multiple mediums
- Support student learning in and through the arts
- Collaborate with classroom teachers, school staff, and Arts Council staff
- Gather materials and resources for instruction
- Document/assess student learning
- Attend bi-monthly teaching artist meetings
- Attend required trainings or professional development
- Implement classroom management strategies
- Abide by school, and Arts Council policies and procedures
- Perform other duties as requested by the ED and Director of Arts Education.

Required Qualifications/ Skills

- Strong background, experience and training in the visual arts; understanding of elements of art & design and experience working in different mediums
- High school degree; some college or undergraduate degree preferred
- Teaching experience/arts education teaching
- Experience working with youth

- Commitment to student equity
- Understanding of Google Docs and Google Classroom
- Strong interpersonal & verbal communication skills; motivated, energetic & optimistic
- Ability to complete Background Check

Desired Qualification/Skills

- Bilingual
- Experience teaching in diverse communities
- Experience in community-arts practice

Schedule/Pay

- Part time: up to 16 hours per week-starting salary commensurate with experience and education Office/School sites based in San Benito County

TO APPLY, please email a cover letter, resume and up to three work samples that reflect your artistic practice to our Director of Arts Education, Amanda Chiado, at amandachiado@gmail.com.

Visit our Arts in Education page to learn more about our Arts in Education Programs.

For other questions or inquiries, please email amandachiado@gmail.com.